Skylight by José Saramago; translated by Margaret Jull Costa
In this newly rediscovered novel, Nobel Prize-winning writer José Saramago portrays the lives of two ordinary families in Lisbon, Portugal, in the first half of the 20th Century. With humor and empathy, Saramago’s absorbing novel demonstrates that all families, whether happy or unhappy, share moments of beauty.